GN-1. Plaintiff (name): Maria Tadeo as Conservator of Marco Tadeo alleges that defendant (name): Kaiser Foundation Health Plan, Inc.

☒ Does 1 to 100

was the legal (proximate) cause of damages to plaintiff. By the following acts or omissions to act, defendant negligently caused the damage to plaintiff on (date): December 16, 2011

at (place): City of Downey, State of California

At all times hereinmentioned, Defendant KAISER FOUNDATION HEALTH PLAN, INC. ("KAISER") owned, designed, installed, maintained, operated and/or supervised a parking lot containing a parking gate arm on its premises located at or near 9400 Imperial Highway, in the City of Downey, County of Los Angeles, State of California. The design and/or operation of the lot and gate arm were faulty, defective, dangerous and unsafe in that the only way that pedestrians could exit the lot was to walk directly underneath the gate arm as it opened and closed to allow cars to enter and exit the lot. On or about December 16, 2011, as Marco Tadeo, a patient of defendant KAISER, was forced in that manner to walk under the gate arm, when it suddenly, defectively and without forewarning came crashing down upon Marco Tadeo and struck his head, causing him to lose consciousness, and resulting in serious injury to his person. The injury was proximately caused by defendant's failure to reasonably and safely own, design, install, maintain, operate and/or supervise the lot and gate arm, all to plaintiff's injury and damage. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that defendant knew or should have known that such a dangerous condition existed at the time of the incident, and yet it failed and continues to fail to correct the danger and continues to maintain the dangerous condition on these premises, thus endangering the safety of the public.

INSTRUCTIONS ON HOW TO COMPLETE THE COVER SHEET

To Plaintiffs and Others Filing First Papers. If you are filing a first paper (for example, a complaint) in a civil case, you must complete and file, along with your first paper, the Civil Case Cover Sheet contained on page 1. This information will be used to compile statistics about the types and numbers of cases filed. You must complete items 1 through 6 on the sheet. In item 1, you must check one box for the case type that best describes the case. If the case fits both a general and a more specific type of case listed in item 1, check the more specific one. If the case has multiple causes of action, check the box that best indicates the primary cause of action. To assist you in completing the sheet, examples of the cases that belong under each case type in item 1 are provided below. A cover sheet must be filed only with your initial paper. Failure to file a cover sheet with the first paper filed in a civil case may subject a party, its counsel, or both to sanctions under rules 2.30 and 3.220 of the California Rules of Court.

To Parties in Rule 3.740 Collections Cases. A "collections case" under rule 3.740 is defined as an action for recovery of money owed in a sum stated to be certain that is not more than $25,000, exclusive of interest and attorney's fees, arising from a transaction in which property, services, or money was acquired on credit. A collections case does not include an action seeking the following: (1) tort damages, (2) punitive damages, (3) recovery of real property, (4) recovery of personal property, or (5) a prejudgment writ of attachment. The identification of a case as a rule 3.740 collections case on this form means that it will be exempt from the general time-for-service requirements and case management rules, unless a defendant files a responsive pleading. A rule 3.740 collections case will be subject to the requirements for service and obtaining a judgment in rule 3.740.

To Parties in Complex Cases. In complex cases only, parties must also use the Civil Case Cover Sheet to designate whether the case is complex. If a plaintiff believes the case is complex under rule 3.400 of the California Rules of Court, this must be indicated by completing the appropriate boxes in items 1 and 2. If a plaintiff designates a case as complex, the cover sheet must be served with the complaint on all parties to the action. A defendant may file and serve no later than the time of its first appearance a joinder in the plaintiff's designation, a counter-designation that the case is not complex, or, if the plaintiff has made no designation, a designation that the case is complex.
