VERIFIED COMPLAINT; DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

1 Plaintiff alleges:

2 1. Plaintiff MARQUI BARBER is an individual residing in Los Angeles County,
3 California.

4 2. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereupon alleges that at all times relevant
5 hereto, Defendant KAISER FOUNDATION HEALTH PLAN, INC. was and is a California
6 corporation doing business in Los Angeles County, California.

7 3. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereupon alleges that at all times relevant
8 hereto, Defendant KAISER FOUNDATION HOSPITALS was and is a California corporation
9 doing business in Los Angeles County, California.

10 4. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereupon alleges that at all times relevant
11 hereto, Defendant SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA PERMANENTE MEDICAL GROUP, INC. was 12 and is a California corporation doing business in Los Angeles County, California.

13 5. KAISER FOUNDATION HEALTH PLAN, INC., KAISER FOUNDATION
14 HOSPITALS, and SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA PERMANENTE MEDICAL GROUP, INC. are 15 collectively referred to as Defendant Kaiser Permanente Hospital.

16 6. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereupon alleges that at all times relevant
17 hereto, Defendant TEODORO KANN BOLOS MENDOZA (hereinafter "Mendoza") was and is 18 an individual residing in the County of Los Angeles, State of California.

19 7. The true names and capacities, whether individual, corporate, associate, or 20 otherwise, of the Defendants named herein as Does 1 through 50, inclusive, are unknown to 21 Plaintiff at this time and therefore said Defendants are sued by such fictitious names. Plaintiff
22 will seek leave to amend this Complaint to insert the true names and capacities of said
23 Defendants when the same become known to Plaintiff. Plaintiff is informed and believes and 24 based thereon alleges that each of the fictitiously named Defendants is responsible for the 25 wrongful acts alleged herein, and is therefore liable to Plaintiff as alleged hereinafter.

26 8. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that at all times
27 relevant hereto, Defendants, and each of them, were the agents, employees, coconspirators, 28

1 parent corporation, joint employers, alter ego, and/or joint venturers of the other Defendants, and 2 each of them, and in doing the things alleged herein, were acting at least in part within the course
3 and scope of said agency, employment, conspiracy, joint employer, alter ego status, and/or joint 4 venture and with the permission and consent of each of the other Defendants.

5 9. Whenever and wherever reference is made in this Complaint to any act or failure
6 to act by a Defendant or co-Defendant, such allegations and references shall also be deemed to 7 mean the acts and/or failures to act by each Defendant acting individually, jointly and severally.

8 10. Plaintiff Marqui Barber (Plaintiff), a 29 year old, African American heterosexual 9 male, has been employed with Kaiser Permanente Hospital (Kaiser) since August 2010. His 10 employment commenced as a volunteer in the Emergency Department (ED) in the West Los 11 Angeles Cadillac location (WLA), and he was thereafter offered a Per Diem position on 12 November 8, 2010, where he worked he worked approximately 30-40 hours per week as an 13 Emergency Room Technician (EMT), until becoming a full time, non per diem, on January 18, 14 2015. Plaintiff has been a licensed EMT since July 2010.

15 11. Defendant Mendoza is a Registered Nurse who worked in the ED during 16 Plaintiff's employment in WLA. Mendoza is an openly gay male of Filipino descent. Mendoza
17 has discussed in the workplace his homosexuality and his diagnosis of being HIV positive, 18 among coworkers, where Plaintiff could overhear. Mendoza is a very effeminate male and rather 19 flamboyant in his mannerisms in the workplace, often observed explicitly expressing his interest 20 in having sexual relations with men.

21 12. In or around 2012 and continuing throughout Plaintiff's employment, Mendoza
22 began sexually harassing Plaintiff, making repeated sexual advances towards Plaintiff. Mendoza
23 would make remarks about sex, Plaintiff's body, and wanting to have sex with Plaintiff directly
24 to Plaintiff, and to other people where Plaintiff was in earshot. On various occasions, Plaintiff's 25 coworkers would comment to Plaintiff about the sexual advances and remarks that Mendoza was 26 making about Plaintiff. This all contributed to the hostile working environment that Plaintiff 27 found himself in.
28

10/16/2015

1 13. Mendoza would remark to Plaintiff that Plaintiff has "big arms, and that he 2 wondered what else was big", inferring that he wanted to see Plaintiff's penis. Mendoza gave 3 Plaintiff a tea bag that read "Organic Throat Coat", suggesting that he wanted to engage in oral
4 sex with Plaintiff. Mendoza would walk up to Plaintiff and say "You're so strong", your arms
5 are "so big", "Oh you're so cute", "You must have a big dick", "You really look good", and 6 would say "Oh Marqui", in a flirtatious, sexually suggestive tone.

7 14. Mendoza would stalk Plaintiff wherever Plaintiff was working and make sexual 8 remarks to Plaintiff. Mendoza would walk up on Plaintiff while Plaintiff was working and 9 Plaintiff's back was turned, only for Plaintiff to turn around and find Mendoza standing there,
10 very close in his personal space. Mendoza would tell coworkers that he wanted to bend Plaintiff
11 over and have sex with Plaintiff. Mendoza would stare at Plaintiff and whisper to other nurses
12 standing nearby about how good Plaintiff's body looked, within Plaintiff's earshot, while 13 Plaintiff witnessed this. Plaintiff's coworkers would also laugh and tell Plaintiff about the sexual 14 comments that Mendoza would tell them about Plaintiff. Mendoza would look at Plaintiff's 15 body from head to toe and stare at Plaintiff in a sexually suggestive manner.

16 15. On occasion, Mendoza would move his body close to Plaintiff's, causing his body 17 to brush up against and touch Plaintiff's body. Mendoza would stand close to Plaintiff and 18 invade Plaintiff's personal space, even though Plaintiff attempted to keep his distance, and 19 Plaintiff would continuously move away. Mendoza would attend meetings and intentionally sit 20 close to Plaintiff. When Plaintiff rebuffed Mendoza's sexual advances, Mendoza continued to 21 harass Plaintiff, including sending messages to coworkers to deliver to Plaintiff.

22 16. In or around May 28, 2014, Plaintiff became exasperated with his working 23 conditions and complained to Patsy Ballangee, the Department Administrator and various other
24 high level managers, including Tonya Fleeks (Fleeks), Assistant Clinical Director; Sarah Poetter
25 (Poetter), Assistant Clinical Director and Interim Department Administrator; Sheryl Brown
26 (Brown), Assistant Clinical Director; and Abigail Evangelista, Assistant Clinical Director.
27 However, the discrimination and harassment did not stop. Rather, Kaiser responded by stating 28

1 that it was having trouble getting a hold of witnesses. However, while Kaiser claimed it was 2 having trouble getting a hold of witnesses, Mendoza was contacting witnesses labeling Plaintiff a
3 "homo phob". Several of Plaintiff's coworkers told Plaintiff that Mendoza was accusing Plaintiff
4 of being "homophobic" as a result of the sexual harassment complaint Plaintiff filed with human 5 resources. This created an even more hostile work environment for Plaintiff. Plaintiff
6 complained again to human resources on September 15, 2014, notifying human resources of 7 Mendoza's continued harassment and violation of confidentiality regarding the investigation into 8 Plaintiff's complaints. However, Plaintiff was only notified that his complaint was being 9 reviewed by Kaiser's legal department, and Mendoza's conduct continued.

10 17. Plaintiff had asked that Mendoza be moved, as Plaintiff felt uncomfortable having 11 to interact with Mendoza in the workplace, particularly since Mendoza was continuing to harass
12 Plaintiff and had begun defaming Plaintiff among coworkers. However, Kaiser refused to move 13 Mendoza and instead asked Plaintiff to relocate in June 2014 when Plaintiff complained to 14 Barbara Washington of HR and Patsy Ballangee. On or around June 11, 2014, Plaintiff was told 15 by Sheryl Brown, that it takes time to close "these issues out" referring to the investigation of 16 Plaintiff's sexual harassment complaint. Brown wanted to move Plaintiff, rather than Mendoza.
17 However, Plaintiff declined moving since it appeared to be punishment and retaliation for 18 complaining. Brown advised Plaintiff to "just ignore [Mendoza]". On or around June 18, 2014, 19 Plaintiff complained to Ballangee, that he did not feel comfortable and that the harassment by 20 Mendoza was continuing to occur. Ballangee said that she would follow up with HR because 21 "she can't do anything for [Plaintiff]". Then, on or around June 19, 2014, in a private meeting
22 with Plaintiff, Brown, Ballangee and Tonya Fleeks again sought to move Plaintiff to another 23 department, rather than move Mendoza.

24 18. On or around September 5, 2014, Kaiser's Senior Investigation Specialist of HR
25 Compliance, Mitchell Miller, sent a letter to Plaintiff indicating that a prompt, thorough and 26 objective investigation had been conducted into Plaintiff's sexual harassment complaint,
27 including a review of pertinent data and interviews with witnesses, and that while Kaiser
28

1 concluded that inappropriate and unprofessional behavior had occurred by Mendoza, Kaiser
2 believed that Plaintiff's concerns were addressed and resolved. (Exhibit 1). Mitchell had also
3 indicated via email to Plaintiff that Mitchell received approval to send out Plaintiff's closure
4 letter which substantiated Plaintiff's claim/allegation of sexual harassment. However, the issues
5 had not been addressed and resolved, because Mendoza continued to create a hostile work
6 environment and harass Plaintiff, resulting in Plaintiff experiencing discrimination and retaliation
7 in the workplace. Particularly, once Plaintiff lodged his sexual harassment complaint, Kaiser
8 repeatedly sought to move Plaintiff from his EMT position, rather than rectify the problem by 9 moving the harasser, Mendoza.

10 19. While the privacy of everyone involved and the integrity of the investigation into 11 Plaintiff's sexual harassment complaints should have been protected, Mendoza violated the 12 confidentiality of the investigation, thereby creating a hostile working environment for Plaintiff,
13 particularly since Kaiser did not attempt to move Mendoza from the ED assignment. Plaintiff's
14 coworkers became aware of Plaintiff's sexual harassment complaint, which made the work
15 environment very uncomfortable where Plaintiff would have to interact with Mendoza and other 16 employees who were watching and observing. Plaintiff's coworkers began joking and referring 17 to Mendoza as Plaintiff's "friend" and laughing. This was humiliating to Plaintiff considering 18 Mendoza is an openly gay man and Plaintiff's coworkers had witnessed Mendoza making overt 19 flirtatious gestures and sexual advances towards Plaintiff.

20 20. On December 18, 2014, Mendoza emailed various Kaiser employees notifying
21 them that he was served with a correction action level 4 due to the sexual harassment complaint 22 filed by one of the EMT's [Plaintiff]. (Exhibit 2). Violating confidentiality and the integrity of 23 an investigation into Plaintiff's continued complaints, Mendoza stated that he wanted to prepare 24 everyone for an interview in two weeks from regional compliance, thereby tainting the 25 investigation, and creating a further hostile work environment where Plaintiff was alienated.

26 21. As of January 21, 2015, Plaintiff found himself still having to interact with 27 Mendoza, with them both still employed in the ED, even after Kaiser had substantiated Plaintiff's 28

1 sexual harassment complaint. However, Mendoza's harassment and defamation of Plaintiff
2 continued, including Mendoza labeling Plaintiff a "homo phob" in the workplace. During a Unit
3 Based Team (UBT) meeting on January 21, 2015, a committee established to contribute to the 4 progression of the Emergency Department, Plaintiff found himself in the same meeting with 5 Mendoza. Plaintiff had been a member of the UBT since approximately November 2014, 6 whereas Mendoza had not been. It was not until January 2015, after Plaintiff's sexual 7 harassment complaint was filed and Mendoza's knowledge of Plaintiff's complaint, that 8 Mendoza joined the UBT and was allowed to join by management. Plaintiff spoke to Ballangee
9 and Fleeks after the meeting and indicated that he did not feel comfortable being part of the UBT
10 if Mendoza was going to be there. During the meeting, Mendoza stared at Plaintiff and would 11 make smiling and smirking faces toward Plaintiff, so as to antagonize and harass Plaintiff.
12 Plaintiff had also spoken to Sarah Poetter halfway through the meeting, indicating to her that he 13 no longer wanted to attend meetings if Mendoza was going to be present. Therefore, Plaintiff
14 declined to attend the meetings after Mendoza joined UBT and did not return to the meetings
15 until June 2015.

16 22. A few days later, when Plaintiff brought a patient back to an assigned room, 17 Mendoza walked into the room and touched Plaintiff's back as he walked past Plaintiff. Similar 18 incidents followed where, when Plaintiff transported a patient and helped the patient into the 19 gurney, Mendoza touched Plaintiff on the shoulder and then said "thank you Marqui" with a 20 smile and smirk on his face. Plaintiff had made clear to Mendoza that he was not sexually 21 interested in Mendoza and did not want him touching him. In another instance, Mendoza walked
22 past Plaintiff and touched him on the arm while Plaintiff stood near a patient room. Mendoza
23 continued to engage in incidents of touching Plaintiff and smirking afterwards, even after he was 24 aware of Plaintiff's sexual harassment complaint and Plaintiff had rebuffed Mendoza's sexual 25 advances.

26 23. Management continued to schedule Plaintiff to work directly with Mendoza, 27 disregarding Plaintiff's sexual harassment complaints and requests that he not work with 28

1 Mendoza. During the month of April 2015, Plaintiff was scheduled to work side by side with 2 Mendoza. After Plaintiff continuously expressing his discomfort with the assignment, Plaintiff's
 3 workstation/pod was moved, and Mendoza began sitting in Plaintiff's old work station/pod.
 4 Mendoza would create instances to interact with Plaintiff and continue to harass Plaintiff, often 5 invading Plaintiff's personal space, walking really close towards Plaintiff, and creating 6 circumstances where he would have to interact with Plaintiff.

7 24. Plaintiff returned to a UBT meeting on June 18, 2015, after being encouraged by 8 managers to rejoin the UBT, only to find that Mendoza was still present and attending these 9 meetings. During the June 18, 2015 meeting, Mendoza smiled at Plaintiff, and walked over to 10 stand next to Plaintiff. When Plaintiff continued to move his seat, and to distance himself from 11 Mendoza, Mendoza would move closer to Plaintiff and corner Plaintiff. Plaintiff excused 12 himself from the meeting and thereafter spoke to Poetter, who advised Plaintiff to "take a walk".
 13 Plaintiff thereafter spoke to Barbara Washington of HR and Andrea Lenoir, the head of HR
 14 compliance, and complained about Mendoza walking up on him, intimidating him and cornering
 15 him, causing Plaintiff to be anxious. Plaintiff also complained in writing to Lenoir, Ballengee,
 16 and Washington about Mendoza's continued harassment, acts of retaliation and defamation
 17 towards Plaintiff and reiterating that he did not wish to work with Mendoza, Plaintiff's feelings
 18 of discomfort, anxiousness, and that he was working in a hostile environment. Plaintiff
 19 requested that Mendoza be moved, and that the solution should not be to punish the victim by 20 moving Plaintiff. Nothing was done to rectify the situation. In fact, despite Mendoza having 21 received a level 4 warning, he was still continuing to engage in harassment of Plaintiff and 22 inappropriate conduct in violation of Kaiser policies. Plaintiff reached out to the Employee
 23 Assistance Program (EAP) on June 18, 2015 and spoke to Laurie Blumfield and also spoke to 24 Barbara Washington of HR again about the recurring problems with Mendoza and the workplace.

25 25. On June 19, 2015, Plaintiff complained to Poetter again, and requested a 26 relocation because he felt as if he was being pushed into a corner and harassed by Mendoza and 27 that Kaiser's management was doing nothing to resolve the situation. Poetter expressed that she 28

1 did not feel comfortable with Plaintiff in the unit and that she did not want bad things to happen
 2 between Plaintiff and Mendoza. Plaintiff offered to check in to ED and go home paid, but 3 Poetter advised Plaintiff not to, because she didn't want Plaintiff to draw attention to himself.
 4 Poetter told Plaintiff to hold off until he met with EAP. Plaintiff met with Blumfield in person
 5 on June 19, 2015, and checked in to ED due to having chest tightness and suffering from anxiety
 6 attacks related to the harassment in the workplace, and the failure of Kaiser to rectify the 7 situation and comply with its policies. Plaintiff was referred to psychiatry on June 19, 2015 for 8 assistance with the anxiety that the hostile work environment was creating and the harassment.

9 26. On June 22, 2015, Plaintiff submitted paperwork to Kaiser to be released for two 10 weeks. He also spoke to Poetter and expressed to her that he did not want to work in the ED
 11 with Mendoza any longer. He further expressed to Poetter that he felt that he was being punished
 12 for having complained about the sexual harassment. Poetter said she understood and offered 13 Plaintiff other positions to inquire about, so that Plaintiff could move out of the ED. However, 14 rather than Poetter moving Mendoza, Poetter requested that Plaintiff move, while "things were 15 being checked out".

16 27. On June 30, 2015, Plaintiff spoke to Washington who stated that Mendoza would 17 be transferring to Gastroenterology Department (GI). However, just five days later, Mendoza
 18 was up to his old ways, violating Kaiser policies concerning sexual harassment, simulating
 19 performing oral sex on a hot dog and posting it on Facebook. (Exhibit 3). Even after his transfer
 20 to GI, Mendoza harassed Plaintiff, continuously spreading the rumors that Plaintiff was a "homo
 21 phob". Plaintiff would also continue to see Mendoza walking past him in the ED, even though 22 Mendoza was assigned to work in GI on the 2nd floor. Also Plaintiff's coworkers continued to 23 comment and smirk about Mendoza's harassment of Plaintiff, creating embarrassment and a 24 hostile work environment for Plaintiff.

25 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

26 (For Harassment, Government Code Section 12940(j))
 27
 28

10/16/2015

37. Plaintiff was sexually harassed and subjected to a hostile working environment, including hostile work environment sexual harassment. The sexual harassment was verbal and physical, and included lewd conduct.

38. When Plaintiff rebuffed the sexual advances of his coworker he was retaliated against and subjected to more discrimination and harassment. His employer knew of the sexual harassment but failed to rectify the situation.

39. The above described conduct was severe and/or pervasive and created an intimidating, hostile and offensive work environment and was unwanted, unwelcome, and uninvited, and violated Government Code Section 12940 et seq.

40. As an actual and proximate result of the aforementioned violations, Plaintiff has been harmed in an amount according to proof, but in an amount in excess of the jurisdiction of this Court. Plaintiff also seeks "affirmative relief" or "prospective relief" as defined by Government Code Section 12926(a).

41. The above described actions were perpetrated and/or ratified by a managing agent or officer of Defendant. These acts were done with malice, fraud, oppression, and in reckless disregard of Plaintiff's rights. Further, said actions were despicable in character and warrant the imposition of punitive damages against Defendant in a sum sufficient to punish and deter Defendant's future conduct.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

(Discrimination Based on Sex/Sexual Orientation, Government Code Section 12940(a))

42. The allegations set forth in this complaint are hereby re-alleged and incorporated by reference.

43. This cause of action is asserted against Defendant Kaiser only.

44. At all times relevant to this matter, the Fair Employment and Housing Act and California Government Code § 12940 were in full force and effect and binding on Defendants. Plaintiff was subjected to unwanted discrimination based on sex and his sexual orientation, heterosexual. This discriminating conduct was conducted by defendants who created an

1 environment that, among other things, tolerated and encouraged discrimination against Plaintiff.
 2 The statements and conduct on the part of Defendants complained of herein represent a violation
 3 of California Government Code § 12940(a).

4 45. As an actual and proximate result of the aforementioned violations, Plaintiff has
 5 been harmed in an amount according to proof, but in an amount in excess of the jurisdiction of
 6 this Court. Plaintiff also seeks "affirmative relief" or "prospective relief" as defined by 7 Government Code § 12926(a).

8 46. The above described actions were perpetrated and/or ratified by a managing agent
 9 or officer of Defendant. These acts were done with malice, fraud, oppression, and in reckless
 10 disregard of Plaintiff's rights. Further, said actions were despicable in character and warrant the 11 imposition of punitive damages against defendants in a sum sufficient to punish and deter
 12 Defendant's future conduct.

13 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

14 (Retaliation, Government Code Section 12940(h))

15 47. The allegations set forth in this complaint are hereby re-alleged and incorporated
 16 by reference.

17 48. This cause of action is asserted against Defendant Kaiser only.

18 49. Defendants took adverse employment actions against Plaintiff in retaliation for 19 complaining about and protesting harassment and a hostile working environment.

20 50. Defendants' retaliatory conduct violated California Government Code Section 21 12940(h).

22 51. As an actual and proximate result of the aforementioned violations, Plaintiff has
 23 been harmed in an amount according to proof, but in an amount in excess of the jurisdiction of 24 this Court. Plaintiff also seeks "affirmative relief" or "prospective relief" as defined by
 25 Government Code § 12926(a).

26 52. The above described actions were perpetrated and/or ratified by a managing agent
 27 or officer of Defendant. These acts were done with malice, fraud, oppression, and in reckless 28

10/18/2015

1. disregard of Plaintiff's rights. Further, said actions were despicable in character and warrant the
2. imposition of punitive damages against Defendant in a sum sufficient to punish and deter
3. Defendant's future conduct.

4. FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

5. (Failure To Take All Reasonable Steps Necessary To Prevent Discrimination, Retaliation
6. And Harassment, Government Code Section 12940(k))

7. 53. The allegations set forth in this complaint are hereby re-alleged and incorporated
8. by reference.

9. 54. This cause of action is asserted against Defendant Kaiser only.

10. 55. Defendants failed to take all reasonable steps necessary to prevent discrimination,
11. retaliation, and harassment of Plaintiff. Defendants' conduct violated the provisions of 12. Government Code Sections 12940(k).

13. 56. As an actual and proximate result of the aforementioned violations, Plaintiff has
14. been harmed in an amount according to proof, but in an amount in excess of the jurisdiction of
15. this Court. Plaintiff also seeks "affirmative relief" or "prospective relief" as defined by
16. Government Code § 12926(a).

17. 57. The above described actions were perpetrated and/or ratified by a managing agent
18. or officer of Defendant. These acts were done with malice, fraud, oppression, and in reckless
19. disregard of Plaintiff's rights. Further, said actions were despicable in character and warrant the
20. imposition of punitive damages against Defendant in a sum sufficient to punish and deter
21. Defendant's future conduct.

22. SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

23. (Negligent Hiring, Supervision, and Retention)

24. 58. The allegations set forth in this complaint are hereby re-alleged and incorporated
25. by reference.

26. 59. This cause of action is asserted against Defendant Kaiser only.

1 68. Defendants conduct as alleged herein was extreme and outrageous, and an abuse
2 of the authority and position of the defendants, including subjecting Plaintiff to sexual 3 harassment and a hostile work environment in the workplace.

4 69. Said conduct was outside the scope of the compensation bargain between Plaintiff
5 and Defendants, and was motivated by personal enmity against Plaintiff.

6 70. Said conduct by Defendants was knowing, intentional and willful, and done with a 7 reckless disregard of the probability of causing Plaintiff emotional distress.

8 71. As a result of Defendants' conduct, Plaintiff suffered harm.

9 72. As an actual and proximate result of the aforementioned violations, Plaintiff has
10 been harmed in an amount according to proof, but in an amount in excess of the jurisdiction of 11 this Court.

12 73. The above described actions were perpetrated and/or ratified by a managing agent
13 or officer of Defendant. These acts were done with malice, fraud, oppression, and in reckless 14 disregard of Plaintiff's rights. Further, said actions were despicable in character and warrant the
15 imposition of punitive damages against Defendant in a sum sufficient to punish and deter
16 Defendant's future conduct.

17 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

18 (Battery)

19 74. The allegations set forth in this complaint are hereby re-alleged and incorporated
20 by reference.

21 75. This cause of action is asserted against Defendant Kaiser only.

22 76. Defendant Mendoza committed unwanted physical contact with Plaintiff when he 23 invaded Plaintiff's personal space, placed his body into contact with Plaintiff's body, and 24 brushed up against his body. This was unwanted physical contact.

25 77. Plaintiff did not consent to Mendoza touching him. Such acts were harmful and 26 offensive to Plaintiff and caused Plaintiff to suffer injury.

10/16/2015

1 78. Defendant Kaiser is vicariously liable for Mendoza's batteries, because the 2 batteries occurred during the course and scope of employment, while Plaintiff was performing his 3 work duties.

4 79. As an actual and proximate result of the aforementioned violations, Plaintiff has
5 been harmed in an amount according to proof, but in an amount in excess of the jurisdiction of
6 this Court.

7 80. Defendants' battery of Plaintiff was malicious, fraudulent and/or oppressive and 8 in reckless disregard of Plaintiff's rights. Such conduct was despicable and justifies an award 9 of punitive damages against Defendants in an amount sufficient to deter them from engaging in 10 such conduct again in the future, in an amount according to proof at the time of trial.

11 NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

12 (Defamation)

13 81. The allegations set forth in this complaint are hereby re-alleged and incorporated
14 by reference.

15 82. This cause of action is asserted against all Defendants.

16 83. Commencing in 2014, Mendoza began publicizing to Kaiser employees that 17 Plaintiff is a "homo phob", and labeling Plaintiff as a "homo phob". Several of Plaintiff's
18 coworkers told Plaintiff that Mendoza was accusing Plaintiff of being "homophobic" as a result 19 of the sexual harassment complaint Plaintiff filed with human resources. This created an even 20 more hostile work environment for Plaintiff. Plaintiff complained again to human resources on 21 September 15, 2014, notifying human resources of Mendoza's continued harassment and 22 violation of confidentiality regarding the investigation into Plaintiff's complaints. To date,
23 Plaintiff continues to hear coworkers referencing Mendoza's comments that Plaintiff is a "homo 24 phob".

25 84. Additionally, Mendoza in December 2014, wrote to several Kaiser employees and 26 stated that he was placed on a correction action level 4 for sexual harassment filed by Plaintiff, 27
28

1 and that Plaintiff had a personal vendetta against him. (Exhibit 2). The Kaiser employees
2 reasonably understood that the statements made were about Plaintiff.

3 85. Not only were the written and verbal statements false and inflammatory, they were 4 intended and designed to injure Plaintiff and his good name and reputation, impugn his character,
5 and harm his trade, profession and occupation. The statements were made and republished by 6 employees, agents and/or officers of Defendants. Kaiser, by maintaining those individuals
7 defaming Plaintiff and republishing such statements in its employ, in conscious disregard of the 8 rights of Plaintiff, allowed Defendants to make statements that constitute defamation.

9 86. The statements made by Defendants were made with malice. The statements 10 made were false, were motivated by hatred or ill will and/or were known to be false by 11 defendants at the time they were made, made without any reasonable basis for belief, and in 12 reckless regard of the truth of the statements or Plaintiff's rights.

13 87. Plaintiff is informed and believes, that such statements were published to 14 numerous employees of Kaiser, coworkers of Plaintiff, and other persons who reside in or around 15 Los Angeles County, California, including employees and managers of Kaiser, and whose 16 identities shall be ascertained during discovery in this action, as well as the exact contents of 17 defamatory statements.

18 88. As an actual and proximate result of the aforementioned violations, Plaintiff has
19 been harmed in an amount according to proof, but in an amount in excess of the jurisdiction of 20 this Court. Such damages include, but are not limited to, loss of reputation, shame, mortification, 21 hurt feelings, humiliation and emotional distress, in a sum to be proven at time of trial.

22 89. Defendants acts were done with malice, fraud, oppression, and in reckless and 23 conscious disregard of Plaintiff's rights, and a further example of retaliation against Plaintiff for 24 complaining of sexual harassment and opposing Defendants' violation of the California
25 Government Code. Further, said actions were despicable in character and warrant the imposition
26 of punitive damages against Defendant in a sum sufficient to punish and deter Defendant's future 27 conduct.

1 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays judgment against Defendants, and each of them, as 2 follows:

- 3 1. Loss of earnings, including commissions and bonuses, and back pay including any 4 increased tax liability thereon;
- 5 2. Loss of future earnings (including commissions and bonuses), promotions,
6 opportunities to promote, front pay and all other employment benefits, such as pension rights;
- 7 3. All other lost pension, insurance and other employment benefits;
- 8 4. Medical, hospital and psychological bills, including past, present and future bills;
- 9 5. General damages (pain, suffering, emotional distress and other non economic 10 damages);
- 11 6. Punitive Damages where applicable;
- 12 7. Litigation costs;
- 13 8. Attorneys' fees;
- 14 9. Civil Penalties as authorized by statutes set out herein above;
- 15 10. Interest;
- 16 11. Damages for increased income tax payments;
- 17 12. Injunctive relief; and
- 18 13. Any other relief or damages allowed by law, or statutes not set out above and such 19 further relief as the Court deems just and proper at conclusion of trial.

Subject: Internal Equal Employment Opportunity Complaint

Dear Marqui:

This letter is in response to the above-referenced complaint sexual harassment and sexual harassment based upon sexual orientation. A prompt, thorough, and objective investigation has been conducted, including a review of pertinent data and interviews with appropriate individuals. Your employer has taken appropriate action and believes that your concerns were addressed and resolved.

As a result of our investigation, we have concluded that inappropriate and unprofessional behavior occurred by the coworker you complained of. Therefore, we are implementing corrective measures and/or disciplinary/corrective action that we expect will prevent any further inappropriate and unprofessional conduct. We believe that your concerns have been fully addressed. However, if you have any additional concerns or complaints please contact me immediately.

In order to protect the privacy of everyone involved and the integrity of this investigation, steps have been undertaken to handle this matter in confidence. For these same reasons, we ask that you treat the information contained in this letter in the same manner.

The employer is committed to protecting you from any retaliation as a result of your complaint and our investigation. Please notify your supervisor or your Human Resource Consultant if you feel that you are being subjected to retaliation in any form.

If you are not satisfied, you may request an appeal in writing to Debra Loveless, Manager, Investigations, 393 E. Walnut, 5th Floor, Pasadena, CA 91188, within twenty-one calendar days from the date of the response. Included in the written appeal, you must include a copy of the original internal complaint form and a narrative explaining the reason for the appeal.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me at (626) 405-6223.

Sincerely,

hello everyone,

I want to inform everybody what I have learned today. I was served a correction action level 4 for sexual harassment filed against me from one of the EMT's has been done. This is just to prove I have no control over this, except to not to take this personally and come to a realization: I cannot control people, places or things.

I have learned that this day forward, to maintain professionalism at all times in any working environment. I also have to be accountable for my actions, to learn and grow from this experience, respect everyone specially when there are personal conflicts. Lets remain tactful, respectful a sour conflict.

I also want to prepare everyone for an interview in 2 weeks from regional compliance. Mike Zackos, union rep, has emailed everyone regarding this notification from regional compliance. I would advise everyone to write down all concerns, feelings and your experience working in our dept. I also advise everyone to write down things that you want to see to change, for the better working environment and safe patient care.

harassment learned from the sexual harassment case(s)

KAREN ERSKINE

hello everyone

I want to inform everybody what I have learned today. I have learned a lot about sexual harassment and how to prevent it. I have learned that it is not just a woman's problem, it can happen to anyone. I have learned that it is important to speak up if you are being harassed. I have learned that there are many resources available to help people who are being harassed. I have learned that it is important to support someone who is being harassed. I have learned that it is important to create a safe and respectful workplace for everyone.

to learn and grow from this experience. I have learned that it is important to respect everyone's boundaries. I have learned that it is important to be a good listener. I have learned that it is important to be a good communicator. I have learned that it is important to be a good team player. I have learned that it is important to be a good leader. I have learned that it is important to be a good citizen.

and continue to work for a better future. I have learned that it is important to be a good role model. I have learned that it is important to be a good mentor. I have learned that it is important to be a good friend. I have learned that it is important to be a good neighbor. I have learned that it is important to be a good community member.

a secure future.

I hope that everyone who is being harassed can find the support and resources they need to get through this difficult time. I hope that everyone who is being harassed can find the strength and courage to speak up and stand up for themselves. I hope that everyone who is being harassed can find the love and support they need to heal and move forward.

INSTRUCTIONS ON HOW TO COMPLETE THE COVER SHEET

To Plaintiffs and Others Filing First Papers. If you are filing a first paper (for example, a complaint) in a civil case, you must complete and file, along with your first paper, the Civil Case Cover Sheet contained on page 1. This information will be used to compile statistics about the types and numbers of cases filed. You must complete items 1 through 6 on the sheet. In item 1, you must check one box for the case type that best describes the case. If the case fits both a general and a more specific type of case listed in item 1, check the more specific one. If the case has multiple causes of action, check the box that best indicates the primary cause of action. To assist you in completing the sheet, examples of the cases that belong under each case type in item 1 are provided below. A cover sheet must be filed only with your initial paper. Failure to file a cover sheet with the first paper filed in a civil case may subject a party, its counsel, or both to sanctions under rules 2.30 and 3.220 of the California Rules of Court.

To Parties in Rule 3.740 Collections Cases. A "collections case" under rule 3.740 is defined as an action for recovery of money owed in a sum stated to be certain that is not more than $25,000, exclusive of interest and attorney's fees, arising from a transaction in which property, services, or money was acquired on credit. A collections case does not include an action seeking the following: (1) tort damages, (2) punitive damages, (3) recovery of real property, (4) recovery of personal property, or (5) a prejudgment writ of attachment. The identification of a case as a rule 3.740 collections case on this form means that it will be exempt from the general time-for-service requirements and case management rules, unless a defendant files a responsive pleading. A rule 3.740 collections case will be subject to the requirements for service and obtaining a judgment in rule 3.740.

To Parties in Complex Cases. In complex cases only, parties must also use the Civil Case Cover Sheet to designate whether the case is complex. If a plaintiff believes the case is complex under rule 3.400 of the California Rules of Court, this must be indicated by completing the appropriate boxes in items 1 and 2. If a plaintiff designates a case as complex, the cover sheet must be served with the complaint on all parties to the action. A defendant may file and serve no later than the time of its first appearance a joinder in the plaintiff's designation, a counter-designation that the case is not complex, or, if the plaintiff has made no designation, a designation that the case is complex.
