Plaintiff Fatima Gutierrez (hereinafter referred to as "Plaintiff" or "Ms. Gutierrez"), hereby submits her Complaint for Damages against Defendant Kaiser Foundation Health Plan. Inc., a California corporation; Kaiser Foundation Hospitals, a California corporation (together, "Kaiser"); and DOES 1 through 50 (collectively, "Defendants") as follows:

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

1. At all times mentioned herein, Plaintiff was an individual residing in the State of California.

2. At all times mentioned herein, Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon 8 9 alleges that Kaiser Foundation Health Plan, Inc. is a corporation, which at all times relevant hereto, was and is doing business in the County of San Bernardino, where the alleged acts of 10 wrongful termination, and other unlawful practices occurred.

At all times mentioned herein, Plaintiff is intermed and believes and thereon 12 3. alleges that Kaiser Foundation Hospitals is a corporation which at all times relevant hereto, was 13 and is doing business in the County of San Bernardino, where the alleged acts of wrongful 14 15 termination, and other unlawful practices occurred.

The true names and capacities of defendants named herein as Does 1 through 50, 16 4. inclusive, are unknown to Plaintiff, who therefore sues such defendants by their fictitious names. 17 Plaintiff will seek leave of this Court to amend this Complaint to include their names and capacities when they have been ascertained. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that the Doc defendants, and each of them, are responsible for the damages alleged by Plaintiff in this Complaint.

7. Plaintiff Fatima Gutierrez began her employment with Kaiser as an Appointment Clerk at the Inland Empire Appointment Center on or about July 24, 2017. On or about August 23, 2017, less than 30 days from her start date, Plaintiff was wrongfully terminated by Defendants because of her pregnancy. Such conduct by Defendants was in violation of California's Fair Employment and Housing Act, California Government Code section 2940 et seq.

8. On or about July 27, 2017, several days after Plaintiff began working for 9 Defendants, Plaintiff informed management that she was pregnant, and of her need to schedule 10 time off for doctor's appointments in the near foreseeable future due to her pregnancy. Plaintiff subsequently scheduled a doctor's appointment for on or about August 22, 2017. 12

During a training session held on or about August 8, 2017, Plaintiff started to feel 13 9. nauseous (morning sickness), exhausted, and fatigued, due to her pregnant condition. As a 14 result, Plaintiff rested her eyes in an effort to alleviate the discomfort that she was experiencing. 15 Upon seeing Plaintiff rest her eyes, the trainer reprimanded Plaintiff for "dozing off" and loudly 16 clapped her hands in front of Plaintiff's face. Plaintiff immediately explained to the trainer that 17 she was pregnant and was not sleeping, but was merely resting her eyes to make the discomfort 18 19 caused by her pregnancy more bearable.

During a subsequent training session held on or about August 14, 2017, Plaintiff 20 10. again experienced hausea (morning sickness), exhaustion, and fatigue stemming from her pregnancy. As a result, Plaintiff rested her eyes to help ease the pain and discomfort that she was feeling. Despite having explained to the trainer previously that she was pregnant and had no control over the symptoms stemming from her pregnancy, Plaintiff was again reprimanded for 24 "dozing off." In fear of losing her job, Plaintiff immediately reiterated to the trainer that she was 25 not sleeping, but was merely resting her eyes to make her discomfort more bearable. 26

27 On or about August 22, 2017, Plaintiff met with her doctor per her scheduled 11. appointment, and was informed that she was 10 weeks pregnant. 28

12. Within less than 24 hours after Plaintiff learned that she was 10 weeks pregnant, Defendants callously and wrongfully terminated Plaintiff's employment on or about August 23, 2017. The sole alleged reason given by Defendants for Plaintiff's termination was "failure to pass probation." However, Plaintiff was terminated after only 29 days into her employment she was not even given an opportunity to fully complete her 75 day probationary period. Additionally, Defendants made no attempt to articulate to Plaintiff the reasons as to how or why she failed to pass probation. Defendants' alleged reason for Plaintiff's termination reclearly pretext.

13. Defendants' afore-referenced conduct and act of unlawfully terminating Plaintiff's employment amounted to illegal discrimination in violation of California's Fair Employment and Housing Act, California Government Code section 12940 et seq.

14. Within one year of the last date of discrimination alleged by Plaintiff against Defendants, Plaintiff filed charges of unlawful discrimination with the Department of Fair Employment and Housing ("DFEH"). Attached hereto as Exhibit "A" is a true and correct copy of Plaintiff's Complaint of Discrimination and DFEH Right to Sue Notice.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(AGAINST DEFENDANTS BY PLAINTIFF FOR VIOLATION OF GOVERNMENT CODE § 12940(a) – PREGNANCY DISCRIMINATION

15. Plaintiff to alleges and incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 14 as though fully set forth herein.

16. At all times herein mentioned, California Government Code §§ 12940 et seq. were in full force and effect and were binding on Defendants. Under the Fair Employment and Housing Act ("FEHA"), Government Code §12940 et seq., it is an unlawful employment practice for an employer, because of the sex and/or pregnancy of a person, to refuse to hire or employ the person, to refuse to select the person for a training program leading to employment, to bar or discharge the person from employment or from a training program leading to employment, or to discriminate against the person in compensation or in terms, conditions, or privileges of employment.

17. As a direct, legal, and proximate result of Plaintiff's pregnancy, Defendants discriminated against Plaintiff in the compensation, terms, conditions, and privileges of employment by terminating Plaintiff due to her pregnancy in violation of California Government Code § 12940.

18. As a proximate cause of the wrongful conduct by Defendants, Plaintiff suffered the following damages according to proof at trial: (i) loss of wages; (ii) loss of work related benefits; (iii) loss of future earning capacity; (iv) emotional distress including mental anguish, humiliation, embarrassment, fright, shock, pain, discomfort and anxiety; and where and suffering.

19. Defendants committed the acts alleged herein maliciously, fraudulently and oppressively with the wrongful intention of injuring Plaintiff, and with an improper and evil motive amounting to malice and a conscious disregard of Plaintiff's rights. Defendants also authorized their managing agent to terminate Plaintiff in conscious disregard of Plaintiff's rights. Defendants also ratified their supervisor's action of terminating Plaintiff due to her pregnancy. Plaintiff is thus entitled to recover punitive damages from Defendants and DOES in an amount according to proof at time of trial.

20. Pursuant to California Government Code § 12965(b), Plaintiff requests an award of attorney's fees and prejudgment interest, against Defendants, and DOES, under this cause of action.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

(AGAINST DEFENDANTS BY PLAINTIFF FOR VIOLATION OF GOVERNMENT
 CODE § 12940(a) – DISCRIMINATION ON THE BASIS OF DISABILITY)
 21. Plaintiff incorporates by reference as if fully set forth herein the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 20.

22. The FEHA codified in Government Code §§ 12900 et seq., makes it unlawful for an employer to discriminate against an employee on the basis of the employee's disability.

23. Government Code Section 12926.1(b) also protects employees from disability discrimination due to conditions that are perceived as a disability or potentially disabling.

Plaintiff informed Defendants of her pregnancy and need to schedule future doctor's appointments to tend to said pregnancy. Plaintiff also communicated to Defendants the physical difficulties she was experiencing from said pregnancy. As a result, Plaintiff was regarded as or treated by Defendants as having a physical condition that made achievement of a major life activity difficult.

6 24. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that her perceived 7 "disability" was a motivating factor in Defendants' decision to terminate her employment in 8 violation of Government Code § 12940(a).

9 25. As a proximate result of Defendants' actions, Plaintiff has suffered and continues
10 to suffer substantial losses in earnings, employment benefits and medical expenses all to her 11 damage in an amount to be proven at trial.

As a further proximate result of Defendants actions against Plaintiff, Plaintiff has 12 26. suffered and will continue to suffer emotional pain, humiliation, mental anguish, decline in 13 physical health and enjoyment of life all to her damage in an amount to be proven at trial. 14 Defendants' conduct as described above was willful, knowing and intentional and 15 27. done with reckless indifference to those statutorily protected rights of Plaintiff; accordingly, 16 Plaintiff seeks an award of punitive and exemplary damages in an amount according to proof. 17 Defendants' actions against Plaintiff have also caused and will continue to cause 28. 18 Plaintiff harm in that Plaint ff has or will incur attorney's fees and costs of suit, including expert 19 witness fees, which will be claimed in an amount to be proven following trial. 20

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

(AGAINST DEFENDANTS BY PLAINTIFF FOR VIOLATION OF GOVERNMENT CODE § 12940(n) – FAILURE TO ENGAGE IN INTERACTIVE PROCESS)

29. Plaintiff incorporates by reference as if fully set forth herein the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 28.

30. Government Code § 12940(n) provides that it is unlawful for an employer to fail to engage in a timely, good faith interactive process with an employee with a known (or perceived) physical disability in order to identify and implement effective reasonable accommodations if any.

31. California Government Code Section 12926.1(e) states, "The Legislature affirms the importance of the interactive process between the applicant or employee and the employer in determining a reasonable accommodation, as the requirement has been articulated by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission in its interpretive guidance of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990."

Defendants were required to proactively engage in a good faith review of 32. Plaintiff's ability to continue to perform the essential functions of her job with or without reasonable accommodations.

Defendants failed to engage in a proper good faith interactive process before they 33. decided to terminate Plaintiff from her job.

As a proximate result of Defendants' actions, Dointiff has suffered and continues 34. to suffer substantial losses in earnings, employment benefits and medical expenses all to her damage in an amount to be proven at trial.

As a further proximate result of Defendants' actions against Plaintiff, Plaintiff has 35. suffered and will continue to suffer emplique pain, humiliation, mental anguish, decline in physical health and enjoyment of life all to her damage in an amount to be proven at trial. Defendants' concluct as described above was willful, knowing and intentional and 36. done with reckless indifference to the statutorily protected rights of Plaintiff; accordingly,

Plaintiff seeks an award of punitive and exemplary damages in an amount according to proof.

Defendants' actions against Plaintiff have also caused and will continue to cause 37. Plaintiff harm in that Plaintiff has or will incur attorney's fees and costs of suit, including expert witness fees, which will be claimed in an amount to be proven following trial.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(AGAINST DEFENDANTS BY PLAINTIFF FOR VIOLATION OF GOVERNMENT CODE § 12940(m) – FAILURE TO ACCOMMODATE DISABILITY)

Plaintiff incorporates by reference as if fully set forth herein the allegations 38. contained in paragraphs 1 through 37. 28

39. Government Code § 12940(m) provides that it is unlawful for an employer to fail to consider a reasonable accommodation for the known physical or mental disability of an employee.

40. Defendants failed to make reasonable accommodations for Plaintiff by terminating her because of her perceived disability rather than determining what reasonable accommodations could be given to Plaintiff to allow her to keep working.

41. As a proximate result of Defendants' actions, Plaintiff has suffered and continues to suffer substantial losses in earnings, employment benefits and medical expenses all to her damage in an amount to be proven at trial.

42. As a further proximate result of Defendants' actions against Plaintiff, Plaintiff has suffered and will continue to suffer emotional pain, humiliation, mental anguish, decline in physical health and enjoyment of life all to her damage in an amount to be proven at trial.

43. Defendants' conduct as described above was willful, knowing and intentional and done with reckless indifference to the statutorily protected rights of Plaintiff; accordingly Plaintiff seeks an award of punitive and exemplacy damages in an amount according to proof.

44. Defendants' actions against Plaintiff have also caused and will continue to cause Plaintiff harm in that Plaintiff has or will incur attorneys' fees and costs of suit, including expert witness fees, which will be claimed in an amount to be proven following trial.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(AGAINST DEFENDANTS BY PLAINTIFF FOR WRONGFUL TERMINATION IN VIOLATION OF PUBLIC POLICY)

45 Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 44 as though fully set forth herein.

46. As a result of the allegations as stated above, Defendants unlawfully terminated Plaintiff due to her pregnancy and unlawfully terminated Plaintiff due to her disability and/or perceived disability. Defendants' conduct in wrongfully terminating Plaintiff's employment in this regard, was in violation of California Government Code § 12940 et seq.

48. As a further proximate result of the Defendants' unlawful actions against Plaintiff, as alleged above, Plaintiff has been harmed in that she has suffered humiliation, embarrassment, disgrace, loss of reputation, loss of self-esteem, mental anguish, and emotional and physical distress, and has been generally damaged, all in an amount to be proven at trial.

49. The above mentioned actions of the Defendants were done with markee, fraud, and/or oppression, and in conscious disregard of Plaintiff's rights under Government Code §§ 12940 et seq. The actions were also done with the intent to vex, injure, and annoy Plaintiff.
Such actions warrant the imposition of exemplary and punitive damages against Defendants, in an amount sufficient to punish and deter others from engaging in similar conduct, in an amount to be proven at trial.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(AGAINST DEFENDANTS BY PLAINTINF FOR INTENTIONAL INFLICTION OF EMOTIONAL DISTRESS)

50. Plaintiff refers to and repeats the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1 through 49 above, and incorporates the same herein as though set forth in full.

19 51. When Defendants committed the acts described above, they did so deliberately 20 and intentionally to cause Plaintiff to suffer humiliation, mental anguish, and emotional distress. 21 The outrageousness of the above-described conduct is amplified due to upper management's 22 abuse of their positions with actual and apparent authority over Plaintiff, such as is commonly 23 found in employment relationships. The Defendants were aware of their unlawful acts, and that 24 the termination of Plaintiff would cause Plaintiff to suffer extreme emotional distress and other 25 consequential damages.

26 52. The above-said acts of the Defendants constituted intentional infliction of 27 emotional distress against Plaintiff and such conduct of the Defendants was a substantial or
28 determining factor in causing damage and injury to Plaintiff.

53. As a result of Defendants' intentional infliction of emotional distress, Plaintiff has suffered and continues to suffer substantial loss and damages including, loss of salary, future advancement, bonuses, benefits, embarrassment, humiliation, and mental anguish in an amount to be determined at trial.

54. The Defendants committed said intentional infliction of emotional distress alleged herein against Plaintiff, maliciously, fraudulently, and oppressively with the wrongful intent of injuring Plaintiff for an improper and evil motive which constitute a malicious and conscious disregard of Plaintiff's rights. Plaintiff is thereby entitled to punitive damages from the Defendants in an amount to be determined at trial.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(AGAINST DEFENDANTS BY PLAINTIFF FOR NEGLIGENT INFLICTION OF EMOTIONAL DISTRESS)

55. Plaintiff refers to and repeats the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1 through 54 above, and incorporates the same herein as though set forth in full.

15 56. When the Defendants committed the acts described above, they knew, or should 16 have known, that its failure to exercise due eare in the performance of their role as employer, 17 manager, supervisor would cause Plaintiff to suffer emotional distress. The Defendants knew or 18 should have known that the termination under the alleged circumstances would cause Plaintiff
19 severe emotional distress

57. The above-said acts of the Defendants constituted negligent infliction of emotional distress against Plaintiff and such conduct of the Defendants was a substantial or determining factor in causing damage and injury to Plaintiff.

58. As a result of Defendants' negligent infliction of emotional distress, Plaintiff has suffered and continues to suffer substantial loss and damages including, loss of salary, future advancement, bonuses, benefits, embarrassment, humiliation, and mental anguish in an amount to be determined at trial.

27 59. The Defendants committed said negligent infliction of emotional distress alleged 28 herein against Plaintiff, maliciously, fraudulently, and oppressively with the wrongful intent of

1	injuring Plaintiff for an improper and evil motive which constitutes a malicious and conscious
2	disregard of Plaintiff's rights. Plaintiff is thereby entitled to punitive damages from the
3	Defendants in an amount to be determined at trial.
4	PRAYER FOR RELIEF
5	WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for and requests relief against Defendants as follows:

2	Additional Complaint Details:

4	Complainant Fatima Gutierrez began her employment with Respondents as an Appointment Clerk at the Inland Empire Appointment Center on or about July 24, 2017.
5	On or about August 23, 2017, less than 30 days from her start date, Complainant was
6	wrongfully terminated by Respondents because of her pregnancy. Such conduct by Respondents was in violation of California's Fair Employment and Housing Act,
	California Government Code section 12940 et seq.
7	On or about July 27, 2017, several days after Complainant began working for Respondents, Complainant informed management that she was pregnant, and of her
8	need to schedule time off for doctors appointments in the near foreseeable future due to
9	her pregnancy. Complainant subsequently scheduled a doctors appointment for on or about August 22, 2017.
10	During a training session held on or about August 8, 2017, Company and started to feel nauseous (morning sickness), exhausted, and fatigued, due to her pregnant condition.
11	As a result, Complainant rested her eyes in an effort to alleviate the discomfort that she
12	was experiencing. Upon seeing Complainant rest her eyes, the trainer reprimanded
	Complainant for dozing off and loudly clapped her hands in front of Complainants face. Complainant immediately explained to the trainer that she was pregnant and was not
13	sleeping, but was merely resting her eyes to make the discomfort caused by her
14	pregnancy more bearable. During a subsequent training session held on or about August 14, 2017, Complainant
15	again experienced nausea (morning sickness), exhaustion, and fatigue stemming from
16	her pregnancy. As a result, Complainant rested her eyes to help ease the pain and discomfort that she was feeling. Despite having explained to the trainer previously that
17	she was pregnant and had no control over the symptoms stemming from her pregnancy, Complainant was again reprimanded for dozing off. In fear of losing her job,
18	Complainant immediately reiterated to the trainer that she was not sleeping, but was
19	merely resting her eyes to make her discomfort more bearable. On or about August 32, 2017, Complainant met with her doctor per her scheduled
20	appointment, and was informed that she was 10 weeks pregnant.
20	Within less than 24 hours after Complainant learned that she was 10 weeks pregnant, Respondents callously and wrongfully terminated Complainant`s employment on or about August 23, 2017. The sole alleged reason given by Respondents for 22	Complainant's termination was failure to pass probation. However, Complainant was terminated after only 29 days into her employment she was not even given an opportunity to fully complete her 75 day probationary period. Additionally, Respondents made no attempt to articulate to Complainant the reasons as to how or why she failed to pass probation. Respondents` alleged reason for Complainant`s termination is clearly pretext.
