Northwest Permanente, P.C., is an organization of doctors, nurses, and non-medical staff, including housekeeping, providing services to patients in the State of Oregon.

3.

Plaintiff was at all times mentioned herein visiting his mother, who was terminal and a patient of defendants at Kaiser Permanente Westside Medical Center, which is owned and operated by defendants.

4.

At all times mentioned herein, the defendants employed maintenance staff to clean patient rooms, and while cleaning these maintenance employees are an employee, agent, or apparent agent of defendants, and was acting within the course and scope of such employment, agency, or apparent agency.

5.

On or about October 20, 2016, at about 1:30 p.m., the plaintiff was at his mother's bedside in room 324. Kaiser housekeeping arrived and asked the plaintiff to move away so they could clean. As he got up from sitting and stepped to the left, his left foot slipped on wet floor and he fell onto the ground, causing injury.

6.

One or more of the agents and employees of defendant who were then and there acting in the course and scope of their employment were aware that a slippery liquid had been applied to mop the floor, but did not warn plaintiff of the wet floor or mark it in any way.

7.

The above described fall and injury were caused by the negligence of the defendant, acting by and through its agents and employees who were then and there acting within the course and scope of their agency and employment, in one or more of the following particulars:

- In failing to warn plaintiff of the risk, (a)
- (b) In requesting the plaintiff to move about the room, when they knew or should have known the floor was wet from mop water;
- In applying soapy water to patient's room floors during visiting (c) hours when they knew a guest was present and might walk on the soapy water or floor
- In asking plaintiff to move into an area of floor that had been (d) mopped but had not yet dried.

As a result of the above-described slip and fall and injury, plaintiff suffered an anterior cruciate ligament tear and lateral meniscal tear of his right knee which was surgically repaired. Following that, plaintiff underwent a debridement surgery for the development of large areas of scar tissue on the injured knee, which has caused, continues to cause, and will permanently cause plaintiff to suffer from an unstable knee, traumatic arthritis which may eventually lead to a knee replacement, knee joint mobility dysfunction, motor KAFOURY & McDOUGAL PAGE 3 – COMPLAINT FOR PREMISES LIABILITY AND 411 SW Second Ave., Ste. 200 PERSONAL INJURIES
